

Bio

- Thomas received his PhD in 2008 at the Imperial College London
  - On the design and testing of the LHCb RICH detectors.
- Then he continued as a postdoc at the Imperial College London from 2008 to 2011
  - Commissioning of RICH, data preparation and processing, operation coordinator
- Research fellow at CERN till 2013
- Royal Society University Research Fellow at Warwick in 2013, now associate professor at Warwick

Research

- Since 2023, project leader of the LHCb TORCH upgrade project.
- The study of rare beauty-hadron decays at the LHCb